

Bus Éireann School Transport Office

REL were selected to upgrade and replace numerous plumbing works within the Bus Éireann offices in Roxboro, Co. Limerick. REL stripped out the existing pipework and replaced them with new pressurised water distribution pipework & mains water, installed a new water storage tank GRP and booster pumps and completed the installation of new toilets and toilets extract ductwork also.

Scope of works:

- Stripping of existing pipework within the offices.
- Replacement of existing pipework with new pressurised water distribution pipework and new mains water.
- Installation of new water storage tank GRP & booster pump.
- Installation of new toilets and toilet extract ductwork.