

Kilkenny Golf Club

REL have completed a number of improvements to both the heating and beer dispense systems in Kilkenny Golf Club, which is home to a championship standard 18 hole course with clubhouse facilities since 1896.

REL installed a new heating system in the Golf Club which included the installation of solar panels and the cascading of existing boilers also. REL also installed its leading Glycol Beer Dispense System into the clubhouse bar.