

The Sky Bar of the Year 2017 – Left Bank Kilkenny

Recently crowned Sky Bar of the Year 2017, The Left Bank Kilkenny is set in one of the most iconic buildings in the South-East and is home to REL's Glycol Beer Dispense System, Ireland's leading beer dispense system. REL installed the Glycol Dispense System in 2013 with management and customers enjoying the benefits ever since.

Set in scenic Kilkenny, just down from Kilkenny Castle, The Left Bank is in the heart of Kilkenny City and is a popular spot for tourists and locals alike, thus requiring a quality product every time! The Left Bank, cemented its place as Ireland's leading Bar with the award of the Sky Bar of the Year in 2017 and this award also confirms REL's Glycol System as the Leading Dispense System available in Ireland today. The leading Bar in Ireland and the Leading Dispense System in Ireland. A great match!
